I still can't believe what you did, Tommy!

Why do you keep bringing that up, Mom! That was weeks ago!

I'm not here to question your parental authority, Maggie, but perhaps, as a child and family team, we should move on from past mistakes to make it easier to plan for the present and future.

Yes, I think you're right, Ralph. We should move on.

About time!

What is the matter with you, Tommy?

Don't worry about it, Mom!

Just let the past go so that we can plan for the present and future!
